

Choose Display Options

Once the game starts the player can go the settings and gets to decide according to his/her choice about the layout of the board. Moreover, if the player is colorblind the player gets to choose that option in display settings as well. Moreover, when there are multiple pieces on a piece a player can hover over that stack and can see the number of pieces and the type of pieces in the stack.